OGDEN LOSES A GAME ON PASSES

Although allowing the Highlanders but three safe hits, Rustenhaven, Ogden's southpaw, lost his own game yesterday by the score of 5 to 0 when he suffered one bad inning and allowed three walks. The three passes, coupled with a mighty clean single from the bat of Warren, was sufficient to tie the game in a knot.

Trekell, the slim boy, who has been sold to the St. Louis Nationals, had things his own way with the locals. He gave them six scattered hits which were sufficient to land them on second and third bases occasionally. Having them in those positions when visions of scores loomed up, he would either fan the next men up or offer them curves that could not be hit anywhere but into the mitts of his teammates.

Even though the score did turn out so unevenly, the fans saw some good ball for several innings. It was one-two-three with the hitters on both sides for a while. But for Rustenhaven's mania for passing Missoula batters, the game would have been one of the best pitchers' battles ever fought on the local diamond.

Events went along smoothly with both sides drawing blanks until the third inning, when Sorenson warmed things up by hitting out a long drive which looked good for two had it not been for James Moorehead who plays in the locality to which the ball went. Trekell helped his own game along by getting in a single. Warren walked and Morse flied out to right field. Warren was caught at third and Trekell scored.

The big fireworks occurred in the sixth when the wild fever took "Rusty" Tobin and Carman fooled away a little time striking at balls and then were walked. Changnon then beat out a bunt, filling the bases. Dashback was then presented with a walk which also presented Missoula with a run. Ogden's twirler then took a grip upon himself and let Sorenson fly to left. He fanned Trekell. A peculiar situation arose with Warren at the bat. He had two strikes and three balls and the bases were full with two out. If he walked it meant a run and if he struck out it meant the side out, so there were all sorts of chances for Missoula to take. The order was given for a triple steal as Rustenhaven wound up on the three base runners were all advancing to the next bases as Rustenhaven threw. The ball was hit squarely for a single by Warren and all three scored.

Ogden had three opportunities to score but failed miserably. Their best opportunity appeared to be the sixth inning when the fans were with a walk to a man. Moorehead, who was the star yesterday, singled and then took second on a past ball. Jones grounded out to second putting Moorehead on third base. With only one man out and a runner on third it looked like an easy score, which at that point would have tied the game. Trekell did a little guessing and walked Feltz. Risberg nearly did the business with a fly to center it was too close however and Moorehead was held on third. Van was sent in as a pinch hitter and he was walked purposefully, filling the bases. Trekell then took his time and let Levy hit the ball which dropped easily into the hands of the left fielder.

In the ninth inning, Risberg singled and Pourroy doubled but Van a pinch hitter again, grounded out. Knight went in as a pinch batter and struck out. Rustenhaven filed to second base.

SALT LAKE WINS FROM COPPERS

Salt Lake, July 16.—The Skyscrapers

to take out revenge on some club for the trimming handed them by Missoula here last week by wal-loping Art Merkle's Butte aggregation to the overwhelming tune of 15 to 4.

Kallio, Butte's young find from Vancouver, was forced to take the brunt of Salt Lake's clouting, and a clouting he did get. Before he could be relieved in the fourth, Salt Lake had lambasted him for twelve safeties, noting a total of sixteen bases and eleven runs. Robinson, who succeeded him, pitched gutt-ed ball, but his efforts were too late in coming.

Bill Morgan pitched a good, uphill game for Salt Lake, although he never extended himself from one to nine.

The game was featured by the hitting of Johnny Pendleton and the fielding of Spencer and Davis.

Catcher Kafoa of the Butte club suffered an injured thumb in the fourth when he "stopped" a foul tip from McClain's bat. Dr. Harville, the club physician, expressed the opinion that the thumb was broken, which undoubtedly means that Merkle will lose the services of his star backstop for some time to come.

Manager John McCloskey announced last night that he would give Otto Hungary, the Arapahoe Indian, his first chance on the mound today, while Manager Merkle announced

Kellogg as his pitching selection for the third contest.
